Subject: Chat with Leia Amidon
From: Leia Amidon <leiaamidon@gmail.com>
To: barriticus@gmail.com

me: hi, Leia, this is Barrett Brown me: thanks for getting back to me the other day me: we just recently set up an IRC channel in which we tend to gather in the evenings informally for planning and collaboration and whatnot, and I wanted to invite you to join us some time so we can talk to you about what you might be interested in doing on Project PM, and to get a better sense of your particular skillset Leia: Hello, Barrett. May we chat after my Skype fhone call I'm tied into presently?

Shoud be over in 20 minutes...will you be around to ping me then?
me: certainly
